Dear Mr. Jackson,

I am enclosing the story on CIA and hope it will meet with your approval. Sorry, I could not mail it yesterday as I meant to. I shall appreciate it very much if you could let me have it back by Thursday Jan. 4, 1951 so that I can get it in the Sunday paper. The AP story you mentioned is scheduled for the same day (Sunday) and, naturally, it would not be good if I came out with my story after everybody else had read the AP story. But to carry the piece the same day would be fair to both of us. I hope you can go over the copy and return it.

Many thanks for your help and the time you gave me.

Very sincerely yours.
